

NEXSEN | PRUET ALTERNATIVE ENERGY LAW

Partnering with alternative and renewable energy industries as they grow by providing sustainable and environmentally-friendly sources of fuel and power generation.

www.nexsenpruet.com

NEXSEN PRUET'S ALTERNATIVE ENERGY PRACTICE GROUP INCLUDES ATTORNEYS WITH DIRECT EXPERIENCE HELPING NEW AND EXPANDING BUSINESSES, BOTH LARGE AND SMALL, THROUGHOUT THE COUNTRY.

Our firm is uniquely positioned through its industry knowledge, as well as practical experience, to partner with alternative and renewable energy businesses seeking to grow by providing sustainable and environmentally-friendly sources of fuel and power generation.

REPRESENTATIVE LEGAL EXPERIENCE

Wind and Solar

- ...Banking and Finance work for multiple wind and solar farms
- ...Corporate and IP for Wind Energy

Ethanol

- ...Lending consortium on $98 million credit facilities for construction of largest ethanol production plant on the East coast

Biomass

- ...Intellectual Property work on series of biomass technologies
- ...Finance work for largest biomass plant in the U.S.

Waste Recovery and Recycling

- ...Permitting and regulatory compliance assistance for many industry sectors, including bioenergy facilities, waste recovery, and recycling facilities
- ...Compliance counsel for the largest energy efficiency project in South Carolina
- ...Compliance counsel for smart grid, battery and biomass projects

Biogas

- ...Series of landfill gas projects, including BMW landfill gas project

INDUSTRY EXPERIENCE

The Alternative Energy team members include attorneys with experience as a former banker, state agency chairman, public utilities commissioner, Ph.D. chemist, electrical engineer, mechanical engineer, and material scientist. With more than 30 practice areas, Nexsen Pruet can significantly leverage the skills of our Alternative Energy attorneys and assist clients with matters such as:

- |                                                          |                                             |
|----------------------------------------------------------|---------------------------------------------|
| ...Business organization                                 | ...Financing                                |
| ...Intellectual property development and protection      | ...Real estate                              |
| ...Environmental and land use matters                    | ...Licensing and regulatory compliance      |
| ...Government relations and public-private collaboration | ...Taxes                                    |
| ...Labor and employment                                  | ...Mergers, acquisitions and joint ventures |

FULL SERVICE, FULL RESOURCES

With more than 185 attorneys in eight offices across the Carolinas, our firm is one of the largest in the Southeast. Founded in 1945, the firm has earned a national reputation for professional, principled service. These values have helped us build and sustain long-term relationships founded on trust, responsiveness, legal skill, community responsibility, and unyielding integrity.