MANUFACTURES LEARN THE LATEST ABOUT ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT AND TAX INCENTIVES

North Charleston, SC — The Economic Development Practice Group of Nexsen Pruet, LLC will update Lowcountry manufacturers on economic development and tax incentives in South Carolina.

“In this area, there are changes almost every year... so it’s important that we keep manufacturers up-to-date,” says Nexsen Pruet attorney April Lucas.

The event will include seminars on issues such as:

- Tips on dealing with environmental issues
- A discussion of industrial revenue bonds & other below market financing
- How local development agreements can protect property rights

Attorneys Burnie Maybank, Neil Robinson, Tommy Lavender and George Bullwinkel will also present vital information at the seminar. The 2008 Economic Development & Tax Incentives Update for Manufacturers is scheduled for Friday, July 25, 2008 at Trident Technical College. To register, go to www.lmcsc.org.
