Wil Magaha is an Associate with the firm's Bankruptcy & Financial Services Practice Group. Wil practices in the areas of commercial finance, real estate, corporate law, commercial transactions, and Nexsen Pruet's USDA Lending practice.

Prior to joining Nexsen Pruet as an attorney, Wil served as an Intern for Nexsen Pruet and the firm's communications subsidiary NP Strategy, where he worked on a variety of projects in mining, higher education, and agribusiness. During law school, Wil clerked for the South Carolina Office of the Attorney General in the Securities Prosecution division where he drafted indictments in preparation for the state grand jury. Wil then worked in the legal department of Mako Medical Laboratories, LLC where he assisted the general counsel by drafting and reviewing contracts, agreements, and compliance documents. Wil also worked for the Department of Homeland Security as a legal intern.

Wil earned his B.A., magna cum laude, from the University of South Carolina Honors College. He earned his J.D. from Georgetown University Law Center where he also served as a research assistant.
