

Rebecca Jennings

ASSOCIATE

t. 864.282.1122

RJennings@nexsenpruet.com

Suite 900
104 South Main Street
Greenville, South Carolina 29601

Practices

Employment & Labor Law

Education

University of Richmond School of Law, J.D., 2017, magna cum laude

→ University of Richmond Law Review, Manuscript Editor

University of Richmond, B.A., 2014

Admissions

South Carolina

North Carolina

Rebecca Jennings is an Associate with Nexsen Pruet's employment and labor law practice group in the firm's Greenville, South Carolina office. Before joining Nexsen Pruet, Rebecca served as a South Carolina Supreme Court Judicial Clerk for The Honorable Justice Kittredge, where she recommended dispositional outcomes to the Court prior to oral arguments and researched and briefed various issues, including matters raised in insurance and post-conviction relief cases. Rebecca also served under The Honorable Edward Miller as a Thirteenth Circuit Judicial Clerk, drafting and reviewing proposed orders.

During law school, Rebecca worked as a Summer Clerk for the Thirteenth Circuit Solicitor's Office and as a Summer Associate for Nexsen Pruet. Rebecca earned her law degree, magna cum laude, from the University of Richmond School of Law where she was the manuscript editor for the University of Richmond Law Review. She also received her B.A. in history with a minor in chemistry from the University of Richmond.

Community & Professional

→ Volunteer, Junior League of Greenville

News

09.18.2020 | News from Nexsen Pruet

Nexsen Pruet Welcomes Associates in Greensboro, Greenville

Insights

04.27.2021 | Article

Pre-Litigation Investigations and Liquidated Damages

03.24.2021 | Article

DOL Proposes Withdrawal of the Business-friendly FLSA “Joint Employer” Final Rule