As businesses start to come out of the COVID-19 pandemic, many will be facing financial turmoil. Although some of the companies may have obtained a PPP loan, it still may not be enough. So, what options do companies have? Click the video below to listen to Christy Myatt, a bankruptcy and financial services attorney with Nexsen Pruet, discuss options to consider when your company needs some financial relief.

Nexsen Pruet has been serving clients for 75 years. We have a wealth of experience to help you navigate these uncertain times.
