Click below to watch the webinar by David Dubberly and David Robinson, originally presented to the South Carolina Chapter of Association of Corporate Counsel on March 12th. The webinar provides an update on employment/labor and contract/supply chain issues related to COVID-19. During the employment law portion of the webinar they discussed how OSH Act, FLSA, Title VII, FMLA, ADA, WARN Act, and NLRA requirements apply to common HR questions and challenges. And in the contract law portion they covered the outbreak's impact on global supply chains, force majeure concepts, choice of law and forum clauses, and civil and common law approaches to "Acts of God."
