

Suspension of the Johnson & Johnson Vaccine Due to Safety Concerns

Related Professionals

Alice V. Harris
803.253.8284
AHarris@nexsenpruet.com

Practices

Health Law

Article

04.19.2021

The CDC and FDA have paused the distribution and use of the Johnson & Johnson COVID-19 vaccine. Health care attorney Alice Harris discusses what this means for vaccine safety and the vaccine rollout in South Carolina.

If you or your business needs assistance navigating health care law, contact Alice Harris at AHarris@nexsenpruet.com.