Alan Lipsitz practices primarily in the areas of commercial and public finance and real estate. Alan represents a variety of commercial and real estate lenders; issuers of tax-exempt obligations and other deal participants in tax-exempt transactions, including trustees, purchasers and underwriters; and real estate developers and owners. His experience in these various areas of practice allows him to understand all aspects of a transaction and to anticipate issues that may arise, resulting in effective and efficient solutions for his clients.

He graduated magna cum laude from the University of South Carolina in finance, where he was a member of Beta Gamma Sigma and was elected to Phi Beta Kappa. Alan received his J.D. degree magna cum laude from the University of South Carolina School of Law, where he was first honor graduate, Chief Justice of the Order of the Wig and Robe, and a member of the Order of the Coif and the South Carolina Law Review.
