Following Nexsen Pruet's historic inclusion in the Am Law 200, the firm has been ranked no. 105 in the Am Law 200 A-List: Female Equity Partner Scorecard by The American Lawyer. This scorecard highlights the share of equity partnership composed of women within Am Law 200 firms. Nexsen Pruet is the top ranked South Carolina-based law firm on the list.

“Nexsen Pruet has a well-known history of respected, ceiling-smashing female attorneys,” said Jennie Cluverius, Nexsen Pruet Board Member and one of two female Office Managing Partners. “We are proud of the foundation these women have built within the firm and the culture of inclusion Nexsen Pruet has established. There is no limit to what women can achieve at Nexsen Pruet and, while there is always more work to do, we remain committed to being a workplace where women thrive.”

Long before they were mainstream, Nexsen Pruet adopted policies and practices, including programs for mentoring, coaching and professional development, aimed at advancing women.

While proud of its current ranking, Nexsen Pruet recognizes that there is much room for improvement, within the firm and across the wider legal landscape. As with many industries, women remain significantly underrepresented in the legal industry.

Nexsen Pruet is committed to promoting, retaining and advancing its female attorneys.

Nexsen Pruet is an AM Law 200 Firm with more than 200 professionals in eight offices providing regional capabilities with international strengths.
