

VIDEO: David Garrett on the Committee on Foreign Investment in the United States

Related Professionals

David J. Garrett
919.653.7802
dgarrett@nexsenpruet.com

Practices

International Law and Services

10.15.2020

The Committee on Foreign Investment in the U.S., an inter-agency committee authorized to review certain transactions involving foreign investment to determine the effect on the national security of the country, recently had its jurisdiction expanded. Listen to international law attorney David Garrett explain how the new federal regulations could have an impact on your company below.

If you or your business need assistance with international law matters, contact David Garrett at DGarrett@nexsenpruet.com today.